What They are Saying

A Lady of Society

Scene: An afternoon tea. Enter Mrs. Astor Street, bowing and beaming.

Mrs. Wornout: "Why, Mrs. Astor Street, how bright you look, and when I left you after Mrs. Pretty's lunch you were nearly dead. What have you done?"

Mrs. Astor Street: "Secret—Guess."

Mrs. W.: "Had a nap?"

Mrs. A.: "No; guess again."

Mrs. W.: "I can't guess, but such a secret ought to be shared."

Mrs. A.: "Well, I'll tell you. Last winter I asked Dr. — what to take when I got so tired, and he said: 'A rest.' I asked him today and he said: 'An Orangeine powder, which was like magic, but perfectly safe, as he had seen the formula, and knew just what was in it.' I took one three hours ago, and have been 'on wings' ever since."

A Saleslady's Discovery

Scene: A Department Store. Miss Susie and Miss Nellie behind the counter at 8 a. m.

Miss Susie: "Say, Nellie, you don't look like dancing everybody down as you did last night."

Miss Nellie: "I don't feel like it, either, but your brother gave me this to take if I felt bad today." (Showing powder.)

Miss S.: "Let's see. Oh! my Doctor started that in our family, and we take it for all sorts of things."

Miss N.: "What does it do?"

Miss S.: "Stops headache, 'grip' and neuralgia quicker than scat, and makes you feel fine when you get played out. It carried me through last night. Didn't lose a day or suffer, either. Perfectly safe, too."

Miss N.: "What do you call it?"

Miss S.: "'Orangeine.' You see it all over now, and all the doctors recommend it."

A well known specialist gives the following sure but simple eliminator for Grip, obstinate Colds and Sore Throat. "Drink Lithia water freely during the day. Take an 'Orangeine' powder every four hours. At night take 'Orangeine' in hot water as directed. This treatment breaks up the cold and leaves the system benefited. If taken early, two powders will abort the attack."

"Well I'm a chump—with a capital 'C'—gone and left my handkerchief at home," said an Englewood man to his friend on the Lake Shore suburban yesterday morning. "Not much worse than I am," said the other fellow. "A chap came into my office the other day with a 'bargain' and I 'fell'; he sold me six for a half, and they are the poorest stuff in the handkerchief line I ever got mixed up with."

"Well, you are easy," replied the E. M. "I passed up all that kind of business long ago; I buy all my stuff at the Washington Shirt Co., and I feel at home there and they treat me 'right.' I pass one of the 'Washington' stores going to and from work every day, so I can run in there now and get a handkerchief without losing any time. You'd better get wise and quit the fakirs, my boy."

What the World Admires in Woman

In passing judgment nowadays on feminine perfections, one does not consider alone the color of the eye, the graceful carriage or the idealic form; instead, the paramount questions are: Is her skin clear and healthy? Has she a bright complexion? Is the rose on her cheeks and the sun in her hair? Or, instead, has she a faded, wrinkled face, and a complexion clouded with pimples, blackheads and other blemishes? These questions, however, are not asked if we know she has been initiated into the mysteries of the new science, which cleanses and strengthens and purifies, until beauty is more than skin deep. There is nothing more natural than that every woman should wish to look her best, and preserve as long as possible all the advantages with which nature has endowed her, and the time she devotes to making herself more attractive is certainly time well spent, provided she understands and proceeds intelligently. In these enlightened days there is no defensible reason why women should fade and grow unattractive. If the body is well and the skin healthy, one should improve in appearance as the years roll by.

For more than a quarter of a century I have made the peculiar ailments of women a special study, and have devoted the best efforts of my life to treating and curing skin, scalp and nervous affections, and with the knowledge gained from this long experience I feel fully justified in promising the most gratifying results in all cases that come under my care.

The new way, the new idea and the new treatment, preserves and beautifies the skin, clears and brightens the complexion, soothes and tranquilizes the most nervous, giving health, strength, beauty, and new life to all. This is the most effective method of purifying, beautifying and clearing a clouded complexion and restoring the skin and scalp to a healthy, natural state.

Ill-shaped, deformed and imperfect features are painlessly corrected and made symmetrical, harmonious and expressive. Moles, warts, tattoo and powder marks, red noses, red veins, scars, birthmarks, superfluous hair and all disfiguring blemishes of whatever nature, no matter where located, are speedily, completely and permanently removed, leaving no trace of their former existence.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt M. Constant Coquelin

Supported by their Parisian Company of carefully selected artists will begin their Chicago season in the

ILLINOIS THEATRE Monday Evening, January 21

The first week of the engagement, that of January 21, will be devoted to Rostand's now famous dramatic poem,

L'Aiglon, or, The Eaglet

The second week of the engagement will be devoted to a repertoire selected from the following plays: Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac," Dumas fils' "Camille," Henri Meilhac's "Frou-Frou," Sardou's "La Tosca" and Shakespeare's "Hamlet."

It is not necessary to dwell upon the artistic merits of either one of the stars as that would be presumption. The company, however, is claimed to be the best that has ever been brought to this country, and certainly is the largest, numbering in the neighborhood of one hundred people.

The tour is under the direction of Maurice Grau, who has been the prime mover in bringing foreign attractions to this country since the death of Henry Abbey.

Manager Will J. Davis of the Illinois Theatre, ever since the announcement of the engagement of Sarah Bernhardt and Constant Coquelin, has been overwhelmed with letters of inquiry as to the repertoire, sale of seats, mail orders and many other questions.

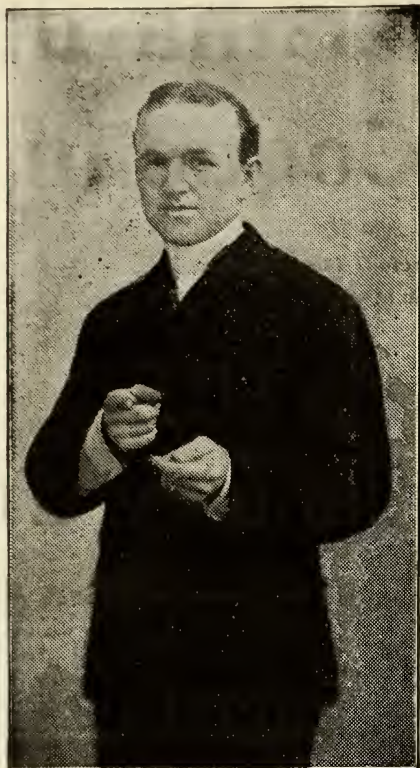

SALE OF SEATS—The advance sale of seats for the first week opens Thursday morning, January 17, at 9 a. m., at the ticket office of the Illinois Theatre.

PRICES—The entire lower floor and the first five rows of the dress circle (called first balcony in other theatres), $4.00. The remaining rows of the dress circle (called first balcony in other theatres), $3.00. The first four rows of the balcony (called family circle in other theatres), $2.00; balance of the balcony, $1.50. Boxes seating six, $30.00; seating four, $20.00; seating three, $15.00; and the balcony boxes, seating six each, $12.00.

MAIL ORDERS—Will be filled when they are accompanied with the money, certified check, postal or express order, provided that the seats can be given reasonably near those asked for in the order. All such orders should be accompanied by a return self-addressed stamped envelope, if the party desires the tickets mailed to them, otherwise they will be retained at the ticket office until called for.

Mail orders will be filled in the order in which they are received, but not necessarily in advance of the first day's sale at the ticket office. The management reserves the right to cancel any order for seats which has a speculative appearance.

Address all orders to Harry G. Sommers, Treasurer.

Corn-Fed Philosophy

An Awful Crime

When a poor, shivering, hungry fellow steals a bite to eat or a rag to wear, society puts him in jail. He gets ten days or ten years for appeasing a hunger that Nature put him in, or for covering a nakedness that it is criminal to expose. And yet the biggest thieves and rascals in the country are recognized as honorable business men. I mean these scalawags who run drug stores where they lie and steal the reputations of good remedies that the owners spend thousands of dollars to advertise. I know stores where this is done every day, and if it isn't stopped I'm going to mention some names.

If you go into these stores and ask for Omega Oil, the poor hireling of a clerk will say it is a fake, and that he has something better for less money. He lies when he says Omega Oil is a fake. He has to lie, or his boss will fire him. I don't blame the clerk but it's the boss I'm after. The boss commits an awful crime when he turns a customer away from Omega Oil to some nasty nostrum of his own. For the sake of a few cents he induces the customer to sacrifice health and happiness. These dealers are a danger to the community. Shun them as you would a leper. There are plenty of honest druggists who give you what you ask for. Do your buying at their stores. An honest man is better than a liar any day. If you have an ache or pain, Omega Oil will stop it. The mixtures of disreputable druggists won't. This is plain talk, but it's true, and truth is what counts.

"FOXY QUILLER."

A new comic opera founded on the character made popular by MR. JEROME SYKES in "The Highwayman" two seasons ago.

The music of "FOXY QUILLER" is by MR. REGINALD DE KOVEN, who says it will exceed in popularity that of "ROBIN HOOD."

The book of "FOXY QUILLER" was written by MR. HARRY B. SMITH, and it is stated that he simply extenuated the character of Foxy Quiller by him in "The Highwayman."

Foxy Quiller in the new opera is a wonderful detective, even more so than the marvelous Sherlock Holmes. He is just as interesting only in a humorous vein, while Holmes is thrilling in a serious one.

The cast of "Foxy Quiller," when presented by the KLAU & ERLANGER COMPANY in this theatre in the near future, will embrace JEROME SYKES, the famous Liliputian, Adolph Zink, Helen Bertram, Grace Cameron, Georgia Caine, Julius Stager, W. G. Stewart, Harry McDonough, Louis Cassavant and some hundred and twenty-five others.

The orchestra will be specially augmented for this occasion, and will be conducted by Signor A. DeNovellis. The choruses are said to be very entrancing, and the singers, especially the female portion, extremely handsome.

Alice Nielsen

Alice Nielsen, the most popular of comic opera stars in this city, will make her reappearance in the Illinois theatre following the engagement of Sarah Bernhardt and M. Coquelin. The little singer will be supported by just as capable a company as it has always been her good fortune to have. She has no new operas, but "The Fortune Teller" and "The Singing Girl" have sufficient friends here to crowd the theatre during her one week's engagement. The two operas will divide the week. Whether "The Fortune Teller" will take the first half or "The Singing Girl," has not yet been decided. Miss Nielsen's engagement will begin on Monday evening, [February 4. Even at this early date applications for seats and boxes have already been made. In fact, two boxes have already been paid for for the opening night.

Maude Adams

Maude Adams will be seen as "L'Aiglon" in this theatre in a few weeks. Those who witness the performance of Mme. Bernhardt in the role will be more than anxious to see Miss Adams. The New York opinions on her performance were varied, but nearly all came to one conclusion that it was a most artistic one, and that the production, after witnessing Miss Bernhardt, compared more than favorably. In fact, one paper went so far as to call Maude Adams the "American Sarah Bernhardt."

Matthews, 44 Jackson Boulevard, has raised a new standard in furs. You cannot afford to make a selection without paying his establishment a visit of inspection. The extremely low prices at which Matthews offers Alaska Seal Jackets (quality considered) must commend them. Also see the exquisite Matthews neckwear, in Chinchilla and Royal Ermine, Stone Marten, Baum Marten and Black Marten.

Omega Oil

OLD PEOPLE—After a man or woman has lived 50 or more years the machinery of the body is pretty well worn out. Stop a minute and think how many miles you have walked in all those years—how many thousands of pounds you have lifted—how many hours you have stood on your feet—how many times your joints have moved back and forth—how many times you have overdone things in work and pleasure. Do you wonder that you have pains and aches? Isn't it about time you did something for your poor body? Get a bottle of Omega Oil at once and rub it into every spot on your neck, shoulders, arms, back, hips, legs, knees and feet where there is an ache. Rub it in good and hard, and the first thing you know you'll feel at least ten years younger. Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

Your druggist sells Omega Oil, or can get it for you of any wholesale druggist. The Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail a bottle, prepaid, for 50c. in cash, money order or stamps. 750

Orangeine

THE POCKET PHYSICIAN

TO EARNEST INQUIRERS

I am repeatedly asked by individuals of every age and description, whether it is possible that the delightful and immediate effects of stimulation, relief and cure, from a timely "Orangeine" powder, can be free from injurious or drug effect. I am glad to be able to state that the long private record of "Orangeine" and my own personal, family and wide public experience confirms beyond question the verdict of a prominent Chicago physician who has now prescribed "Orangeine" for over two years. He states: "It is the most far-reaching combination I have ever known and its prompt application for fatigue, pain, depression or physical disturbance is not only a positive benefit but often is the means of aborting serious ailments."

CHARLES L. BARTLETT,
Pres. Orangeine Chemical Co.

Chicago, Dec. 24, 1900.

Cures—Builds Up—Sustains

A harmless five-grain powder of well-known remedies, delicately balanced by years of human test.

Grip and Colds can be completely cured in one night by following the "Orangeine hot water directions," and their debilitating results entirely averted.

It Stops All Pain, Headache, Neuralgic, Periodic and Cures the Cause.

Revives from Fatigue, nourishes and regulates brain, nerves and stomach.

Prevents and Cures Seasickness, Carsickness and all Disturbances of Travel.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

Prof. Duncan B. Macdonald, of the Hartford, Conn., Theological Seminary, says: "In my work as teacher and student, I have found 'Orangeine' invaluable. For liver, stomach and head I know nothing like it, nor have I ever found trace of after effect."

Mrs. A. Morgan, 1213 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Have been a terrible sufferer from headache and neuralgia; I cannot begin to tell you what a 'Godsend' your 'Orangeine' has been to me."

Lt.-Col. R. I. Eskridge, 23d Infantry, Fort Douglas, Utah, writes: "'Orangeine' will not only relieve sick headache but will cure it."

"Words are inadequate to express my gratitude to wonderful 'Orangeine' for headache, pains and cold," writes Mrs. H. E. Pickens, 119 N. High St., Nashville, Tenn.

"After hard day of teaching I find 'Orangeine' gives immediate relief from headache and great fatigue," writes Mr. Henry A. Truax, the accomplished Chicago vocalist.
